

Hendrickson Family Tree

Hendrick Hendrickson m. Jane Luitgert
1663-1738 1640-1680

Hendrick came from Utrecht, The Netherlands in 1663. He first settled in Flatbush, Long Island, New York and later settled near Monmouth, NJ. Hendrick's grandfather was a seafaring Captain, named Cornelius Hendrickson, who spent time in New Amsterdam, (located on the southern tip of Manhattan Island, NY). He commanded a ship named the Restless, up the Delaware River making charts, which are now stored in The Hague, Holland. Cornelius may have been the first European to set foot on soil that is now called Pennsylvania.
